

Danielle Lewis

Registered Physical Therapist

Danielle is an experienced and passionate Physiotherapist and a dedicated mother to two beautiful children. She was awarded the opportunity to study and play competitive ice hockey as a goalie at the University of New Hampshire in USA for her NCAA University hockey team. Danielle graduated at the top of her class with the highest honours “summa cum laude”, with a Bachelor of Science from the university, and returned to Canada to complete her Masters in Physical Therapy at the University of Western Ontario in 2011. Since then, Danielle has practiced for multiple institutions including the Physio clinic in Nova Scotia, Institute of Sports Medicine in Toronto, Ontario, and SWAT Health in Mississauga, Ontario.

Danielle has been living in Iqaluit, Nunavut since 2018 where she has built a successful practice while also working in different schools for the Ongomizwiin Health Services. As an experienced Physiotherapist, she is dedicated to providing each client with the best care and takes the time to plan appointments based on individual needs. Danielle is very excited to continue serving Nunavummiut by providing this much needed service. Assisting people in their recovery brings her great joy.
